

STUDENT PARTICIPANT STARS UNITED GLOBAL OUTREACH YOUTH AMBASSADOR PROGRAM 2025 - 2026

Background

The Student Ambassadors are invited to participate in the program by administration because they have proven to be positive, responsible, respectful students.

Through the Youth Ambassador Program, youth gain the confidence to be advocates in their schools and communities. This includes grassroots advocacy through community mobilization and transformation, as well as advocating throughout the city of Dallas. Students will leave the program feeling empowered to create change in their community – no matter how big or small!

Youth Ambassadors will be expected to serve in leadership roles within their community. They may be called upon often to represent the program at conferences, media events, and other types of engagements throughout their term as a Youth Ambassador.

Members of the Youth Ambassador Program are hardworking and well-versed individuals who have demonstrated their commitment by reaching out to peers, friends, and younger students. Youth Ambassadors shall serve as role models for other students and agree to abstain from using drugs and alcohol.

Eligibility Requirements

- I am a currently enrolled student, with at least one semester of high school remaining at the end of my term if I am a high school senior.
- I will be between the ages of 12 and 18 years old at the start of my term
- Be willing to attend one-hour weekly workshops in the Summer, Fall and Spring Terms
- Demonstrate strong communication (written and verbal) and interpersonal skills
- Exhibit leadership, initiative, dependability, discipline, and enthusiasm
- All applicants must be students in good academic standing with no lower than a Coverage overall and must agree to maintain that good standing throughout their term.
- Members of the Youth Ambassador Program must be prepared to meet all the obligations outlined in the “Roles, Responsibilities, and Time Commitments.”
- Students must be willing and able to attend trainings and events and must be accompanied by an adult if under 18
